NARRATIVE

Weather: Dark & Raining

Reporting officer D. Green made the scene at the board game cafe located 2351 Lincoln Street and met with SGT T. Barnes of the Homicide Bureau. SGT Barnes stated he was working on a homicide and requested a sketch to be made of the scene and for evidence to be collected. A sketch of the scene was made by E. Perez. Reporting officer Green observed a female sitting at a table on the second floor of the cafe. Victim was found lying on the table on her chest and the right side of her face. Both of her arms underneath the table. There was a red substance on the table, floor and on the victim, that appears to be blood. Victim was wearing a blue dress and blue heels. Near the victim were a gaming board, six colored tokens and 18 dice. Underneath the table were two rule books, possibly held by the victim during the crime. One of the rule books is covered in the red substance that appears to be the victims blood. Victim had wounds to her back. Medical investigator A. Martin made the scene and checked the victim for other injuries. No other injuries were found at the scene. Body removal unit transported the victim to the Forensic Center. Reporting officer Green collected all of the evidence from the scene and tagged it.
